9:50 AM — 10:50 AM: Symposium #1 in Banquet Room

“Roadmap to Korean AP”

Ms. Elena Paul, Executive Director, HLPUSD

The purpose of this workshop is to provide participants with an overview of the Korean online assessment/course aligned with Common Core State Standards, the analysis of the pilot test, and its implementation and globalization. Participants will learn about key design considerations on common core state standards framework that include reading, writing, listening, speaking, critical thinking elements, as well as, expectations of all stakeholders, design background, and its alignment to the Korean National Standards. In addition, the workshop will highlight the newly developed Korean level 4 online teaching curriculum and assessment that reflect state of the art research and practice in foreign language education that can expand worldwide.

10:50 AM — 11:50 AM: Symposium #2 in Banquet Room

“Online Korean Course and Assessment Aligned to CCSS”

Ms. Sung Kim, KDLP Teacher, Cahuenga Elementary, LAUSD

Mr. Tae Hyuk Im, Teacher, Gahr High School, ABCUSD

This presentation is to provide a general view and understanding of the Korean Online Course, which has been developed by the IKEN. One of many goals of the Korean Online Course is to give an opportunity to middle and high school students whose primary schools do not provide the Korean language course on site. During this presentation, presenters will explain how the course is run and how and why this monumental course is beneficial for students. The audience will be able to gain an understanding of the curriculum and structure of the course and to see some of the dynamic and exciting parts of this course that other courses have not been able to provide, in terms of their instructions and technology. The student's responsibilities, along with information regarding technical support, registering for the class, and course assessments will be a part of the presentation.

4. “So You Want to Be a Principal?” in Banquet Room:

Dr. Suzie Oh, Principal, Third Street Elementary, LAUSD

Ellen Park, Principal, Cedarlane Academy, K-8, HLPUSD

As school leaders preparing our students for the 21st century, two experienced and successful school principals will share their research-based best practices, experiences, insights, challenges and leadership skills for running schools. As leaders as learners, the presenters will inspire aspiring principals to learn, reflect, motivate their students, staff and parents.

1. “Classting” in Conference Room:

Mr. Dave Cho, Co-founder and CEO of Classting, Inc.

Ms. Jina Yun, Marketing Manager of Classting, Inc.

Dr. Chiaie Kitayama, Director, LAUSD

South Korea’s largest educational social network, Classting, is bringing its free, user-friendly service and its practices to the United States. Classting was originally developed by an elementary school teacher to stimulate students’ interest and participation in learning while providing an easy service for the teachers to use. Now Classting is used by over 150,000 teachers and over 200,000 classes worldwide. Audience will learn how to get started and how to utilize Classting in a classroom setting.

2. “Korean Online Assessments” in Banquet Room:

Dr. Sung-ock Sohn, Professor, UCLA

Placing students into multiple levels of language classes is quite challenging for language instructors. This session introduces the design and the development of a Korean online placement test at a college level (and a secondary school). Specifically, it presents the process of item development, item formats, and writing guidelines. Also, it discusses issues and challenges for the implementation of a Korean online assessment.

3. “Master’s Program in Korean Language” in Banquet Room

Dr. Nam Hee Lee, Professor, CSULA

This presentation will introduce all MA in Korean programs in North America regarding their curricula, tuition, professors, time to finish, and their focus. This presentation is construed as a way to promote Korean teachers pursuing an advanced degree in Korean studies. In addition, a model MA program will be suggested that best enhances pedagogical expertise in Korean language and literature teaching.

10:50 AM — 11:50 AM: Symposium #3 in Conference Room

“Korean American Immigration History”

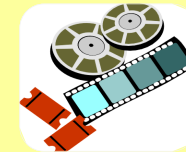

Dr. Edward Park, Professor, Loyola Marymount University

This presentation will present academic themes, pedagogical strategies, and learning outcomes that are central to teaching Korean American experience.

11:50 AM — 1:10 PM: Lunch Activities in Banquet Room

“Yes, IKEN!” - A Video Presentation

Dr. Chiaie Kitayama, IKEN Board Officer / Director, LAUSD
